

why you might consider choosing us

- You are looking for someone who specialises in selling land for development

We have been selling land for residential development since 1990. It's what we do.

- You are looking for someone who has the resources to ensure you get the best deal for your land

We currently work with 276 builders. We will help you to identify the builders that have a proven track record for completing contracts on land similar to yours.

- You are looking for someone with a proven track record in selling land for residential development

Since its inception Land4homes has completed 139 land sales generating £598m of housing development. In that time we have had 2 unsuccessful transactions.

- You are looking for someone who has the professional qualifications to sell your land

Land 4homes is run by Jonathan Sharp BSc FRICS

- You are looking for someone who will get the best price for your land

We don't hide behind jargon. There are no hidden costs. We will maximize interest in your land either by tender or private treaty to ensure you get the best deal for your land.

